

SUGGESTED VERSES FOR MEMORIZATION & MEDITATION

- Show yourself in all respects to be a model of good works, and in your teaching show integrity, dignity, and sound speech that cannot be condemned, so that an opponent may be put to shame, having nothing evil to say about us. (Titus 2:7-8)
- Bondservants are to be submissive to their own masters in everything; they are to be well-pleasing, not argumentative, not pilfering, but showing all good faith, so that in everything they may adorn the doctrine of God our Savior. (Titus 2:9-10)
- You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven. (Matthew 5:14-16)

READ VERSES 7-8 AND DISCUSS THE FOLLOWING

1. Paul urges Titus to be a model of good works in everything. How might our lives be a model for others?
2. The teaching of a Christian is meant to be marked by integrity, dignity, and sound speech. What is biblically sound (or healthy) speech?

READ VERSES 9-10 AND DISCUSS THE FOLLOWING

3. Paul addresses these verses to slaves working for their masters, but we can apply it today as employees and employers. How is being an employee similar and different to being a slave?
4. The reasoning behind the Christian slaves' good works is their desire to adorn the doctrine of God our Savior. How do our lives adorn the truth of the gospel?

ACTIONS TO CONSIDER

- Consider particularly Paul's words in verses 9-10. Do you, as an employee, live out those verses? Take time to plan for how to better obey Scripture.
- Pray for God's grace to live a life that adorns the gospel message.
