

SUGGESTED VERSES FOR MEMORIZATION & MEDITATION

- For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age. (Titus 2:11-12)
- Waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works. (Titus 2:13-14)
- Declare these things; exhort and rebuke with all authority. Let no one disregard you. (Titus 2:15)

READ VERSES 11-12 AND DISCUSS THE FOLLOWING

1. Paul begins this section by stating that the grace of God has appeared bringing salvation for all people. Does this good news mean that all people will be saved? Why or why not?
2. How does the gospel train us to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives?

READ VERSES 13-14 AND DISCUSS THE FOLLOWING

3. In addition to being trained by the gospel to live godly lives, we are to also wait for our blessed hope, the appearing of Jesus, our God and Savior. Why is the second coming of Christ so important. Why is it called our blessed hope?

READ VERSE 15 AND DISCUSS THE FOLLOWING

4. Just as the chapter began, Paul ends by urging Titus to proclaim the truth of God. From where does Titus' authority for exhortations and rebukes come?

ACTIONS TO CONSIDER

- Share the gospel. Because this text provides the motivation for discipleship and evangelism, it is best to consider both how and why we do them. Our proper response to a true understanding of the gospel must be to share it with those we love.
- Pray. God has given salvation by grace for all people; therefore, pray that those who do not know God's grace would hear and receive it.
